The PhialofLife NFT Project is conducting an OpenSea DROP, a public sale event scheduled for Monday, April 1st, 2024 at 9:00 am PDT. This release will take place in three distinct phases, each offering a specific number of NFTs for sale.

Phase 1:

In the initial phase, 1,000 NFTs will be made available for purchase. This means that collectors and enthusiasts will have the opportunity to acquire these unique digital tokens from The PhialofLife collection during this phase.

Phase 2:

Following Phase 1, the project will proceed to Phase 2, during which an additional 4,000 NFTs will be offered for sale. This phase expands the availability of NFTs, allowing more individuals to participate in owning a piece of The PhialofLife collection.

Phase 3:

The final phase, Phase 3, will encompass the sale of the remaining 5,000 NFTs. By releasing these tokens in the last phase, the project ensures that its entire collection of 10,000 uniquely crafted NFTs from The Realm of Oluju becomes accessible to the community.

This three-phase approach allows for a gradual release of the NFTs, accommodating different levels of interest and ensuring that collectors have multiple opportunities to participate in The PhialofLife NFT Project. As each phase progresses, individuals will have the chance to secure their desired NFTs, contributing to the growth and vibrancy of The PhialofLife community.

Art Anatomy

The word “Phial” is synonymous with “vial”. Vial is a small container, typically cylindrical and made of glass. It is often used to hold liquid medicines. In the case of PhialofLife, its content is not medicine but a remedy of ginger, turmeric, garlic, lemon and honey simmering in Oluju’s mystic waters.

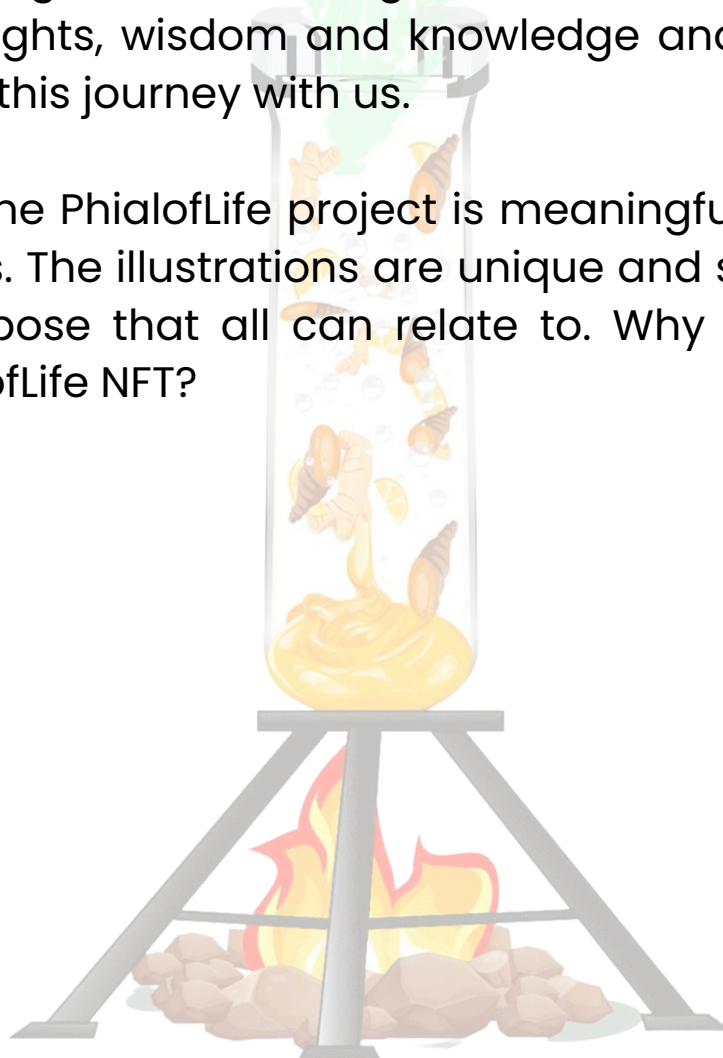

PhialofLife is a collection of 10k uniquely crafted NFTs on the Ethereum blockchain. The collections are illustrative in character with each NFT emphasizing a new age of awareness in health and well-being management. The illustration employs natural elements of the environment to call on humanity to explore an alternative approach to health and wellbeing management through the universe's boundless resources.

A unique illustration consists of a base character in the form of a PHIAL resting on a tripod. The Phial contains an immune boosting remedy simmering on a trait characterized as FLAME. Another trait characterized as STEAM ascends from the phial into the skies paying homage to the heavenly bodies that have inspired a new age of awareness. The heavenly bodies are characterized by traits of UNIVERSE against a backdrop trait of SKY. A trait characterized as FLOWER symbolizes humanity's frail mortality. The flower is rooted in traits characterized as GROUND.

PhialofLife promises to elevate your health and well-being to unimaginable realms by means of ownership. Each PhialofLife NFT will grant access to our health and well-being based virtual community and utilities. Community events will empower PhialofLife NFT holders with ancient secrets that will maximize health and wellbeing. We come from a lineage of ancient greats that are gifted with timeless insights, wisdom and knowledge and we want to take you on this journey with us.

At its core, the PhialofLife project is meaningful and void of complexities. The illustrations are unique and symbolic of a greater purpose that all can relate to. Why wouldn't you own a PhialofLife NFT?

Thank you
